Kalemegdanska terasa Restaurant

Kalemegdanska terasa, a restaurant with tradition and an oasis of hedonism in the historical core of Belgrade — The Kalemegdan fortress, is a perfect blend of modern and traditional impressions for all senses. The special enjoyment in food is the result of Chef Danijel Stevanovic's uniquely created Menu — based on French cuisine suitable for a supreme family meal. As a perfect accessory to a perfect meal, the Restaurant has a spectacular view over the City and its rivers.
Petrovaradin Fortress (Petrovaradinska tvrđava) is the city's most popular and attractive cultural and historic site. The Austrians originally built it as a military fort to reinforce their defenses against the Ottomans. Beautifully perched on a high cliff, the fortress overlooks the Danube. The four story structure, which has been called the Gibraltar on the Danube, features 16.5 km of underground galleries, 12,000 gun holes and 13 gates.
